VOLUNTEERING AT CMC

The Hub, Emett Student Center

As the parent of a CMC student, you are already a part of the Parent Network. If you would like to become more actively involved, please stop by the Parent Volunteer Kiosk to meet current members of our Parent Network Board. Here you can learn about the many opportunities available, including career services, admission, communications, events, and giving. You don't have to live locally to volunteer and support CMC and our amazing students!

11:00 a.m. to
1:00 p.m.

WELCOME TO CMC!

Roberts Pavilion

Join the campus community at this memorable event as President Hiram Chodosh and college leadership officially welcome all new students and families into the CMC community. Doors will open at 12:45 p.m. for family seating.

2:30 to
3:20 p.m.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

- Academic Requirements

Mary Pickford Auditorium, Bauer Center South

While allowing your student to assert his or her independence is great for their overall development, as a parent you likely have plenty of questions about how they will achieve academic success. Elizabeth Morgan, Registrar & Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, will provide an overview of the College's academic requirements and the support students receive.

- Introduction to the Soll Center for Student Opportunity

Roberts Pavilion Arena

The Soll Center for Student Opportunity is home to three important services at CMC, including Career Services, the Sponsored Internship Program, and the Scholar Communities. The Center is sits in the middle of campus and is designed to see the campus through the 'eyes of a student,' enhancing their ability to more intentionally and strategically access the variety of resources available to support their personal and professional development. Join Michelle Chamberlain, Associate Vice President and Dean for Student Opportunities, Kevin Arnold, Executive Director of Scholar Communities, Ursula Diamond, Director of Student Opportunities, and Evan Wollen, Assistant Director of Sponsored Internships, to learn more about how to support your student in getting the most out of the four years at CMC.

- Student Wellness

Bauer Forum, Bauer Center South

Claremont McKenna College is committed to learning and living environments that empower students to make responsible choices that impact their physical, emotional, and mental health. In this session, members of the Dean of Students Office will highlight some of the many strategies in place to support this goal, and will offer information about shared services at the Claremont Colleges that are dedicated to student wellness, including Student Health Services, Monsour Counseling and Psychological Services, and Health Education Outreach. Representatives from these consortium health service offices will also discuss the many health and wellness resources available to students as they navigate their transition to and their journey through college.

3:30 to
4:20 p.m.
