

CONTINUED SESSIONS

Keep your college degree current by attending one or more of our various Continuing Education sessions offered over the weekend featuring CMC personalities including alumni, staff, and members of our outstanding faculty.

FRIDAY

1:30 PM - Second Annual Angel Summit

Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship - Freeberg Forum

The second annual Angel Summit is a gathering for CMC entrepreneurs of all stripes. The half-day summit will include a moderated interview of two prominent CMC graduates who have founded their own companies: Henry Albrecht '91 from Limeade and Jason Soll '12 from Cape Productions. The moderator for the discussion will be celebrated tech journalist and co-founder of Re/Code, Kara Swisher. The summit will also include a pitch event featuring promising venture ideas of recent alumni and current students.

1:30 & 2:30 PM - CMC Art Tour

Art Council - Alumni Club

Unknown by many, CMC possesses a prolific art collection. Join the Student Art Council on one of two tours of the many masterpieces housed on campus.

1:45 PM - The Bard's Legacy: 400 Years Later

Professor Emeritus Ricardo Quinones P'88 - Roberts North 15

This week marks the 400th anniversary of the death of William Shakespeare, the immortal bard and dramatist whose writing has captured the imagination of cutting edge artists and audiences ever since. Join several actors who will read from some of Shakespeare's most loved plays and discuss why these works remain vital today.

2:00 PM - Leading Ladies: Tales of Hollywood Success

5C Alumni Panel - Blach Auditorium, Scripps College

Hear a panel of Claremont Colleges alumnae talk about their paths to success in the entertainment industry. They will share their experiences and journeys from Claremont to Hollywood in becoming creative forces behind some of the most influential film and television happening today.

3:00 PM - Trumping Politics: The Elections of 2016

Professor Jack Pitney - Davidson Lecture Hall

Regardless of whether you support Bernie or Trump, Hillary or Cruz, there's no denying that the race for the presidential candidacy has been a wild ride. Join Roy P. Crocker Professor of American Politics Dr. Jack J. Pitney, an expert in American politics and author of After Hope and Change: The 2013 Elections and American Politics (2013) and The Art of Political Warfare (2000), for a discussion of the 2016 elections, on the national, state, and local levels.

Continues on the back...

This is your weekend. WELCOME BACK.

CONTINUED SESSIONS

SATURDAY

11:00 AM - Justice After War: The View From Below in Burundi

Dean Peter Uvin - Freeburg Forum

The civil war in Burundi lasted from 1993 to 2005 and resulted in the deaths of more than 300,000 people. As the country once again sits on the brink of civil war amidst political conflict and violence, Vice President of Academic Affairs and Dean of the Faculty Peter Uvin, an expert in human rights and development, invites you to a discussion on the past and present turmoil in Burundi.

1:00 PM - CMC Campus Master Plan

John Faranda '79 - Kravis Center 102

Review the campus construction plans now and into the future.

1:00 PM - The Early Years: A Conversation about CMC's Co-Ed Experience

Alumni Panel moderated by W. Torrey Sun - Roberts Hall North 15

This year marks the 41st anniversary of the College's decision to admit women as undergraduates. The arrival of female undergraduates at CMC, and the eventual replacement of "Men's" with "McKenna" in the school's name in 1981, marked a crucial turning point for the young college. Engage CMC's proud pioneer women as they recount their experiences attending CMC.

2:30 & 3:30 PM - Claremont Colleges Bus Tour

John Faranda '79 - Alumni Club

Take this informative 30-minute tour with our resident Claremont Colleges expert, John Faranda '79, and see what stories and secrets you can get out of him!

3:00 PM - Erasing Race from International Relations

Professor Jennifer Taw - Roberts Hall North 15

The author of Mission Revolution: The U.S. Military and Stability Operations (2012), Associate Professor of Government Dr. Jennifer Taw is an expert in American foreign policy, international relations, and security studies. Join her for a discussion on the role of race in international relations.

4:00 PM - Magic and Neuroscience: Or Why Perception, Attention, and Cognition Are Important

Professor Cathy Reed - Kravis 102

Catherine L. Reed, McElwee Family Professor of Psychology and George R. Roberts Fellow, is an expert in cognitive psychology and cognitive neuroscience. Join Professor Reed as she explains what illusions and magic tell us about perception and the brain.

This is your weekend. WELCOME BACK.